

Exclusive Adobe Certification offer to BPA Advisors!

As a Business Professional Advisor you can receive this limited-time offer to become certified on Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Dreamweaver, or Adobe Flash. Certiport is offering BPA Advisors one free Adobe Certified Associate voucher to become certified before December 31, 2009.

Achieving an Adobe Certified Associate (ACA) certification demonstrates the ability to use digital media to plan, design, build and maintain effective communication. You can get an industry certification from Adobe to validate your digital skills and implement ACA certification into your BPA chapter and your classrooms.

For a limited time, Certiport is offering one FREE Adobe Certified Associate exam voucher to all BPA Advisors. Use the exam voucher to take any of the following Adobe Certified Associate certification exams:

- Web Communication using Adobe® Dreamweaver®
- Rich Media Communication using Adobe® Flash®
- Visual Communication using Adobe® Photoshop®

To receive your free exam voucher, you must register online with Business Professionals of America before October 31, 2009. Registration for BPA opens online August 31 at www.registermychapter.com/bpamem. Exam vouchers expire on December 31, 2009.

Once you register online at the BPA site, Certiport will send you an email with your exam voucher and instructions within 5-7 days. Please be certain to update your contact records with your most current email address during the online membership registration process.
